

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The Custer County Library has seen tremendous growth both as a library facility and as a community program center in the past twelve years; and,

WHEREAS, Mary Coffin has served as the librarian of the Custer County Library during this time; and,

WHEREAS, Mary has been extensively involved in developing a strong library volunteer system; and,

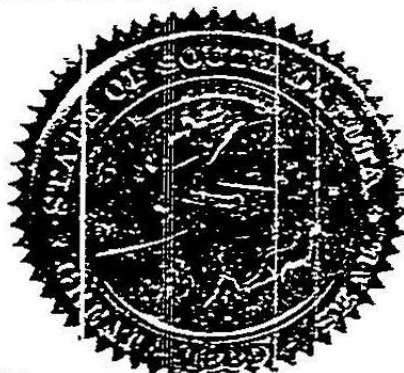

WHEREAS, Mary has been instrumental in the South Dakota literacy movement, particularly in the creation of the Southern Hills Literacy Council; and,

WHEREAS, Custer and other Southern Hills communities wish to recognize the dedication, commitment and service that Mary Coffin has provided as librarian of the Custer County Library:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 9, 1988 as in South Dakota. Her true commitment to reading, library science, literacy for all, and the community merits the compliments and appreciation of those who have known and worked with her in the Custer County Library program for the past twelve years.

ATTEST:

Joyce HazelTine
JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Ninth Day of November, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight.
